JOY OF GIVING

"Joy of Giving" (2-8 October 2017) was an initiative by the NSS volunteers of SNGCE to bring a sense of charity and compassion towards people in the society. This initiative had many programmes through which all the students of Sree Narayana Gurukulam College of Engineering were able to participate.

This was started on the 2nd of October 2017 by the NSS volunteers who cleaned the college campus in regards with the Swatch Bharat Mission by the Govt. of India. The college campus and other areas near the college were cleaned and awareness programmes were conducted by the volunteers on the importance of cleanliness and the need of making India free from garbage and pollution. The volunteers also conducted a blood bank drive in this college wherein students in the college registered in the blood bank.

The NSS volunteers collected clothes and entrance preparation books from the students of SNGCE. All the collected items were sorted and packed to be distributed to different charitable organisations in Ernakulum city. This was a huge success as all the students participated wholeheartedly and a huge collection was received from the college.

On 6th October, the NSS volunteers visited more than 7 schools in the locality to give the entrance preparation guides and handbooks to students from a poor financial background. More than 100 students were given study material for preparing for the entrance exams. This was very much appreciated by the school authorities as it would help students to pursue their dreams.

The clothes collected from the students and faculty members of SNGCE were distributed to 5 orphanages on the 7th of October 2017. The NSS volunteers visited these orphanages and spent time with them. Big boxes of clothes were handed over to these orphanages to be given to the inmates of these facilities. Special talks were conducted by the NSS programme officer and the volunteers on how to deal with difficulties in life. All the children in places were happy to meet and make new brothers and sisters.

On 8th October, the NSS volunteers visited an old age home in Ernakulum. There were more than 70 inmates in this organisation run by the government. The NSS volunteers prepared activities and fun events in which all the people in the old age home participated. These programmes brought laughter and love for the fathers and mothers who were left in this facility. The NSS volunteers were able to mingle and spend times with them. This also helped the volunteers to understand the importance of families and love for their parents. The volunteers prepared a special meal for them and were very happy to spend the day with them. Some products and gifts were donated by the NSS volunteers towards the organisation.

"Joy of Giving" initiative hosted by the NSS volunteers of SNGCE was a huge success as it helped the students to understand how blessed they were and also helped them to understand the importance of charity and compassion towards different people who are affected by the society around them.
